

IVY SCARBOROUGH

Lawyer; television, radio and print commentator; speaker; author; radio program host; former adjunct professor of international studies, history and political science at Union University, Jackson, Tennessee; and professional mediator.

Speaking, writing, teaching and commentary focused on international affairs, the Christian faith, national defense, terrorism and world religion.

.....

ENTERED AND REPORTED FROM EIGHT WAR ZONES

AFGHANISTAN

Traveled extensively in Pakistan in 1985; later that year entered Afghanistan with mujahadeen to document the war with the Soviet Army; in operational area of Osama bin Laden; protected by his mujahadeen unit from Arab mujahadeen associated with al Qaeda; account published in three articles in The Memphis Commercial Appeal.

EL SALVADOR -

Observer during war against FMLN insurgents. Accompanied Salvadoran Commandos on four day patrol into guerrilla territory in Morazan Province along Torolo River. Three articles published in Memphis Commercial Appeal and Nashville Banner.

EDUCATION

Graduated 1973 from Union University, Jackson, Tennessee, with majors in History, English and Psychology; received Doctor of Jurisprudence degree with an emphasis in international law from University of Memphis Law School 1976.

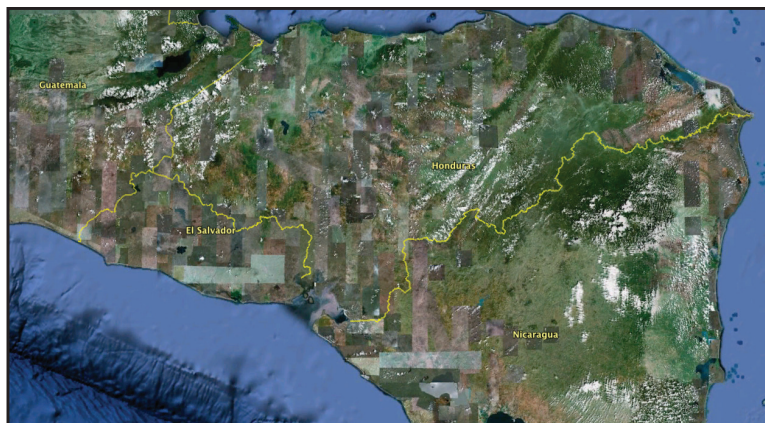

WRITING, LECTURING & COMMENTARY

Authored the book "Winning Against DUI" dealing with legal, social policy, and media issues related to drunk driving; book endorsed by National Presidents of MADD (Mothers Against Drunk Driving) and RID (Remove Intoxicated Drivers). 1996

Recently authored Into the Night – The Crisis of Western Civilization a 900 page, 400 illustration, study of the decay and decline of civilizations and how the indicia of decay and decline can be found throughout Western civilization; analyzes the causes of the decline and proposes a strategy for the rescue of Western civilization from historical oblivion. To be published in summer of 2010.

Features and commentaries appearing in, among others: The Charlotte Observer, The Chicago Tribune, The Houston Chronicle, The Indianapolis Star, The Knoxville News Sentinel, The Memphis Commercial Appeal and The Nashville Banner.

Lectured for military at the National Training Center, Fort Irwin, California, the Defense Information School, Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indiana, and the Tennessee National Guard headquarters.

NICARAGUAN-HONDURAN BORDER -
For observation of war during Contra Wars 1989

SOMALIA

In 1993, entered Somalia with the 10th Mountain Division just prior to Blackhawk Down incident; participated in convoys and night patrols.

ISRAEL- during first Persian Gulf War. 1991

Articles and Predictions on Terrorism and International Issues “Terrorism and an International Criminal Court”, “Terrorism and the American Military Response” published in Memphis Commercial Appeal. For several years prior to Sept. 11, 2001, predicted in newspaper and TV commentaries that there would be a catastrophic terrorist attack against the US; in 1996 Nashville Banner article stated that “the previous World Trade Center bombing will be a pin prick rehearsal for what will follow.”

BOSNIA - Scarborough, center in heavy body armor, with French Foreign Legionnaires at Sarajevo airport in 1993. Entered areas of most intense fighting and atrocities, including operational area of al Qaeda at Zenica; toured with UN PROFOR; account published in The Memphis Commercial Appeal.

Attended national security briefings at the U.S. Army War College, Carlisle Barracks, Pennsylvania; account published in two articles in The Memphis Commercial Appeal.

Presented Jones Honorary Lectures on “U.S. Foreign Policy and the Soviet Union” at Union University, 1984. Predicted probable eventual collapse of Soviet communism Published as two commentaries in The Memphis Commercial Appeal.

Immediately after September 11, 2001 conducted briefings for the Tennessee National Guard officers’ corps on terrorism and Afghanistan.

Study of former Soviet Union and U.S.S.R. government and legal system, visiting five republics: Russia, Ukraine, Azerbaijan, Armenia and Georgia; account published in four articles in The Memphis Commercial Appeal.

Wrote monthly column "Your Church & the Law" for Southern Baptist magazine Church Administration. Wrote weekly column, Law and the Christian Life, which was published in the Tennessee Baptist & Reflector, Tennessee Pentecostal Voice, Hawaii Baptist, Iowa Southern Baptist News, Oklahoma Baptist Messenger, The Montana Baptist, The Michigan Baptist Beacon newspapers; articles also published on-line by Asbury Theological Seminary, among others. 1996 - 2001

KOSOVO – Entered as guest of 82nd Airborne and Special Forces upon entry of UN forces; accompanied Special Forces in arrest of alleged war criminal. Participated with 82nd Airborne in night helicopter and foot patrols. 1999

SUDAN – With the Sudanese rebel army in 1998. Entered from Kenya to observe civil war.

DESCRIPTION: 6' 7", 245 lbs., dark brown hair, blue eyes.

INTERESTS: Avid reader (various translations of the Bible, history, biography, philosophy, military history and tactics, theology, psychology, sociology); physical fitness enthusiast (weight training, cross country running, swimming), firearms and shooting (especially tactical and combat weapons); private pilot of Helio Courier 700 STOL airplane; member of the "Red Hats" (The Society of the Vietnamese Airborne).

FAMILY: Wife Ramona Phelan Scarborough, a psychiatric nurse practitioner; father of two adult daughters; lives on family farm near Jackson, Tennessee.

CONTACT: Phone: 800-547-0037. Fax: 731-784-1636.
E-mail: ivy@ivyscarborough.com. Website: www.ivyscarborough.com.